

is pleased to announce a
Central States Professional Development Workshop featuring:

Dr. Helena Curtain

“Formatting a Balanced Approach to Integrating Instruction in the Foreign Language and Second Language Classroom”

This regional workshop, hosted by IN-NELL (Indiana Network for Early Language Learning), is offered in an effort to provide increased professional learning experiences to early language educators in our network. Are you interested in:

- Developing thematic units of integrated second language instruction?
- Building a balanced second language program in your school district?
- Assessing receptive and expressive language skills?
- Using interactive techniques to present vocabulary?
- Integrating language and content teaching and assessments?
- Actively engaging all learners?

Join us for a day of sharing and interactive discovery!

Dr. Helena Curtain is the co-author of Languages and Children: Making the Match, now entering its 4th printing. She is known nationally and internationally for her collaboration in support of second language teachers and learners from Pre-K – 8. Her personally engaging presentational style is legendary, as is the knowledge she shares!

Dr. Helena Curtain

Date: October 3, 2009

Location: Park Tudor School
Wood Room, Upper School
7200 North College Avenue
Indianapolis, IN 46240

For questions about the workshop, please contact Terry Caccavale, NNELL Past President, at caccavalet@holliston.k12.ma.us or by cell at 774-573-0850.

For questions concerning local information (directions or hotels), please contact the workshop site coordinator, Joanne Jones, at jjones@parktudor.org or by cell at 508-221-1738.

Due to the popularity of Dr. Curtain, we anticipate that this workshop will fill quickly. Therefore, we urge you to complete the attached application and return to Robin Hawkins at your earliest convenience.